TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1864.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. WILLIAM W ARMSTRONG, SUPREME JUDGE. PHILADELPH VAN TRUMP MACRIAS O WHITELEY ALEXANDER S. BOYS. TATTORNEY GENERAL, LYMAN R CRITCHFIELD.

OM Holmes County.
COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY.
WILLIAM S V PRENTISS,
OF Franklin County. ACHOOL COMMISSIONER, ALEXANDER S RAMSEY. BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS. WILLIAM LARWILL, CHARLES BOESEL

Current News Items.

The amount of property destroyed by the rebels in the present raid, together with what they seized and carried away, is almost incal calable. At least eight bridges have been destroyed on the Northern Central Railway between Munceytown and Cockeysville.

The people of Philadelphia are well nigh at Baltimore.

Major-General Franklin was captured on a

The report that Gunpowder bridge has been destroyed is doubted

A rebel deserter reports the invading force now operating in the North to be very large Mayor Gunther has written a letter to Genforce now in the city. He is fearful of anoth-

The Florida is becoming quite as formidable to our merchantmen as was the Alabama. Governor Seymour will issue a proclama so note to go with them; he did go. He had tion ordering all citizens of New York to hold been working for us two or three months, but themselves in readiness for military services did not belong to us. und urging the formation of National Guards.

When the Alabama steamed out of Cher,

Lincoln.

Gold went up to 290 yesterday in New York, and settled down at 277.

cinnati are raising money to establish a Fre-millions who are anxious to be deceived. mont paper. They are subscribing in shares Bat just now even the many fools of the counof $10 each erate vessels off Cherbourg watching for an opportunity to pounce on the Kersage.

Gov. Seymour is evincing something more than mere sham in the prosecution of Dix The Governor, it is said, will militia of the and who has been in daily contact with lead of the State to enforce the law.

Tod recommended himself by telling filthy stores. Lincoln pronounces him the best story teller in Obio.

for this must be apparent to all. July 9, 1864.

which threatens Baltimore and Washington. One corps, at least, that of Baldy Smith, has been sent to the former place, and from the aspect of affairs to-day, Grant will have to spare a still larger proportion of his troops to repel the very formidable army which, under the most for consummated.

"A Drop in the Eye." ne mischievous boys lately fired a route Which dropped, hilling Skwam in the eye, near the

"Es 19 mos the first "drop in his eye" -by a long shot! cents.

Reliability of the Telegraph.

Yesterday a dispatch came in these A words: "Dishelieve all secession rumors of dangers, and terrors in Washington." To-day it informs us that there is a rusinforcements are very much needed.

learn that Baldy Smith's corps is at Bal-

Startling News Line Northern fortifications of Washington .-There is no doubt that reinforcements are needed there. Business is nearly suspended in Philadelphia and Baltimore. General Franklin and staff were taken prisoners, and are now in the hands of the rebels.

The Horrors of this War. A ludy of Rosnoke, Virginia, writes the ing in their turn the wrongs complained of by the people of Virginia. Such is war, and this? yet there are persons who desire its continuance indefinitely.

"The sankee army passed through this village on Tuesday morning last, and pillaged the houses of everything they could carry off in a panic Communication with Washington is out off.

The 18th corps, Baldy Smith s, has arrived stole my cow, flour, meal, meat, lard, and in fact, everything we had to eat, but they rifled our tranks, took all my gold and silver motrain on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on ney, my silver plate, and every kind of kitch-gesterday.

The report that Gunpowder bridge has been

"They not only done us so, but our neigheral Sanford, protesting against the withdraw. bors were treated likewise. The negroes in-al from New York of the organized military sulted the ladies, and one buck nigger smacked a young girl's face not far from us. One General rode up and told my servant woman er riot, growing out of the general distress if she would go be would take ber up behind him. She told him she did not want to go, as the had a good master. They had these Kathairon notes that usually come around hair oil, and paid one man in front of our house a

"You never saw such destruction in all your life. The seople that told them they were for the Union were treated worse than bourg roads, she was greeted with tremendous the others. They called them d—d liars cheers by the populace who witnessed her de and other vile names. The next morning I did not have a dust of flour or meal, not a teacupatil, and not an ear of corn to send to the bor, as the victor, she was received in gloomy mill. We were in a destitute condition truly; silence This indicates the feeling of the but, thank God, some of our friends, not so near the road, who were more fortunate, came The National Guards of the City of New York have protested in a body against being sent out of the State, on the requisition of come again it will be with lire and sword.

A Specimen Telegram of 1863, The falsity and folly combined of the telegraphic dispatches, has long been notorious cinnati are raising money to establish a Fre-It is stated now that there are two Confed- try may be willing to learn a lesson, we reproduce the following "specimen brick" tale graphed by the "official liar" from New York on the 7th of October 1863. It reads well at this particular time.

"The Times' Wash ington dispatches say tha and others, charged with the crime of sup- a colored barber, direct from Richmond, where them is met by the host or hostess, pressing the World and Joannal of Commerce. he has resided during the last eighteen years the State to enforce the law.

Brough, Dennison and Delano, all deny that mond a success: that Richmond can now be they recommended Tod for Secretary of the easily capitared if the Yankeen want it, and wilderment. It he answers "Commercial," Treasury. The probability seems to be that that officers of the army have frequently as it wilderment. It he answers "Commercial," Tod assembled himself by telling fifthy in his hearing that it would be abandoned he will be ushered into a comfortable parlor, aboutd the Army of the Potomac advance in which he will occupy as a lounging place and force. Many citizens assert publicly that dining room in company with any other casual they will not offer any resistance in case of an attack, because it would be utterly useless visitors of like tastes and inclinations. If he

We cannot possibly afford to continue The judgment of the world confirms seclusion which the majority of Englishmen to furnish the Daily Engine at present the estimate placed by the Democracy of regards as so indispensable to their comfort. to furnish the Daily Empire at present America upon the administration of Abraham rates. The great advance in the cost of its Lincoln Interested office-holders and conpublication compele us, relustantly to an tractors alone pretend to expuse the high nounce that after this week we must increase its price to 20 cents. The necessity by defend him. All must admit in their hearts that he apparent to all, that he has proved a miserable failure, and ose and a big squabble was the result. Offour seconds !" This was too female beat a hasty retreat.

Connecticut Courtship.

"Brandy one dollar a drink"—is the pla. the Porter, Houts, and the Chambermand, card in the window of a Broadway (N. Y.) An American who travels to see people, and mag meanly answered, when told of the wrong shot, untion that a Lincoln deliar is only worth five meets at hotels in (Writing expressly for the Daving Empire)

SUMMER IN EUROPE, LXVIII

BANKWELL - BADDON HALL

Leaving London on Tneeday the 6th of mor that the Confederates have anacked October, we spent the greater part of a beautiful own American soil. These remarks though the fortifications of the city, and that re- day, in getting north, through Rughby Leicester Derby and others of the great number of Yesterday we were told that the raid large interesting cities which is so thickly covwas not of so much consequence as to et the whole surface of this wonderful island, disturb Gen. Grant. This morning we to the little town of Bakewell, the atopping place for visitors to Chatsworth and Haddon Hall We arrived too late in the evening to make any excursions to interesting localities in the vicinity, but we had some hours will on We have startling news in the tele- our hands to dispose of before dark. There graphic dispatches to-day. It is rumored was no one about our inn for us to look at or that 15,000 rebels have attacked the talk to there were no readable books in the library, no one seemed to be in the streets, and so, in a desperate effort to find something wherewith to employ the time, I climbed up to the little church, which is built upon a bill overlooking the town, to loiter among the graves, which were thickly rounded up about t. A cemetery is a very notemu place when the names of departed friends stare in one's face, from the monuments, but in a strange place, I have almost invariably found that the church yard will furnish the material for edifyfollowing to a Lynchborg paper, detailing the cation and amusement, when all other places conduct of Federal soldiers in that village. fail and that of Bakewell proved no exception to The loyal people of Maryland are now soffer, the raise. Was it not worth walking a hundred yards to stamble upon an epitsph such as of some of the most thrilling incidents of the SACRED TO MEMORY OF PHILIP ROE Who Died September 12th, 1816. The youal Powers here let us mark Of Phi (p. our late Parish Clerk. In Charm name ever heard a Layman With clearer voice sty "amen!"

Wan observe your says a sure.
Who now with Halls uphs Sound
lifes Him can make the Boofs rebound The Choir lament his thorat forms.
The Town - so soon have he Hee Box Sleep andistrebed within thy peaceful stre

Poor Philip! what a sad fate is yours! The my children's clothes, and, indeed, all and everything. They made a road through outront vard and tore down our fences, grazed our oats, and destroyed nearly everything we silenf tomb. What manner of men were they who thought such lines a fitting sulogy for a worthy christian? Philip would have been worthy christian? Philip would have been perfectly justifiable if he had burst his cerements, returned to earth and visited fearful retribution upon those, who thus made him as fresh as if it were but a year old, although idiculous even in his grave. The last two lines are respectable, but they are marked as a quotation. The original fountain of inspiration evidently ran dry before the space upon the tombstone was filled, and the "poick" was forced to summon a reinforcement,

After tea we sat in the coffee room istened to the townsmen talk as they sat sociably over their hot gin. They discussed wheat, wool, cheese, horses, cattle, and agricultural fairs and shows, just as country people do with us, and were kind and courteous to each other to a surprising degree. All the pleasant little expressions current in the conversation of gentlemen, like "you are very kind-sorry to trouble you-thank you kindly -my destrair—I beg your pardon, etc., fell delight the little men and women of our time, with perfect naturalness and fluency from the with perfect naturalness and fluency from the tongues of these men, who in social position seemed, and in general intelligence undoubtedly were, far below the average of our Amer ican farmers. Our countrymen, although rich in all kindly feelings, are generally in too great a hurry, or too earnest and straightforcivilized people in civility.

These English inns differ widely in some respects from the country hotels of Amer- shall see it no more forever. ica A traveller upon entering one of with servants to receive his luggage, and be is asked, "Commercial or private?" a question which if he be but lately arrived tonly, designedly and unlawfully conspiring in the country, will likely to result in his be-wilderment. It he answers "Commercial," ment and to inaugurate the bloodiest and The Price of our Daily to be People daily sending their effects further Advanced to 20 cents per South in anticipation of the coming Yan sion of a bed room and sitting room, where kees. There is no "office" or "reception room," and there are no impertment inquiries made as to name, residence or destination. There is no one intelligent human being can conscientions- common table either, and no fixed hours for meals. You order what you wish at any hour that he is, morally and intellectually unfit to and you pay only for what you order. There govern, either in peace or war. He must be la no crashing gony to drive slumber from thrust ignominiously from the high office he your eyelids in the morning, and no necessity The Invasion.

Every dispatch seems to impart additional magnitude to the Confederate force which threatens Baltimore and Washings. perpendicular drinking in which Americans so generally indulge. Instead, there is a The way they do business in New Haven coffee room, in which there are cushioned illustrated by an incident published in the is illustrated by no incident published in the seats and convenient little tables, and there Journal and Courier. A chap had courted a seats and convenient little tables, and soci giving her a large number of presents to congregate the bibalously inclined, and socikeep her admiration all right, but differences ably sip their wins or gin, and fill the room Of with amoke from long stemmed pipes. The accounts are prompt and efficient, and no skillfel commanders of the South, seems she passed over the demanded dry goods matter how much trouble you give them, they to intend the capture of the Federal capi"I'll take that photograph album, if you please" don't dog you continually for money. You tal. It is not unlikely that a great battle She extracted the nitrogram and returned that will find them however on hand at your description before the taking of Richmond is dollars for, and give them hack to me in about gesticulations, and should you remain obtaine four seconds!" This was too much, and the or obduste, you will seed hear a modestly have sail preferred request that you will "remember" the Porter, Boots, and the Chambermaid, liquor salons.

We construe the above into a disloyal iosio and individual characteristics in the crowds he meets at hotels in his own country, will not like the quietness of the English inn at first, but as his experience increases, his disentis faction invariably diminishes, and he ere long will be very apt to arrive at the conclusion that the word "comfort" is thoroughly under stood in England, and that they have there some ideas upon the subject which he would gladly see transplanted and flourishing in our ly appliable to the hotels of the great English cities, in which one finds the same quiet, the same satisfactory arrangements with greater elegance and expense. Living at a first-olass hofel in London will cost an American, if he invists upon his three meals every twentyfour hours, not less than one pound sterling, or five dollars per day tradition Hall, one of the most complete of It is unoccupied now, and its six hundred years of existence have not left it without some marks of "Lime's corroding tooth," but still it shows us very plainly what were the domestic arrangements of the nobility in the dark ages, centuries before America was discovered, when the barons were kings and the people slaves. As Also. covered, when the barons were kings and the people slaves. At different times, it has been the residence of the families of Vernon, Avenell, Peveril, Manners and Stanley. This section, Derbyshire, being the highest ground in-England is called "the Peak." This fact, to England is called "the Frank. I has lact, to gether with the appearance of the name of "Peveril" among its prominent families, sug-sected the idea that Scou's novel called "Peveril of the Peak" was based upon the adven-tures of an inhabitant of this section, and my interest was vastly increased when I found the supposition correct, and Haddon Hall, under the name of "Martindale Castle" the scen story It suggested also, it is said, many of the ideas of Mrs. Radcliffe a sombre romance.

the Mysteries of Udolpho.

A pretty miss of foneteen was our guide through the different apartments. The old kitchen with its two immense fire-places, in which sheep and yearling caives were rosster whole, and the old tables on which dinner was dished, and the mince-ment chopped, is was daned, and the indevines the property of a still in services ble condition, but destined to remain unused I imagine, until the world "turns into its yesterdays," and goes back again to the "golden days" of the reign of "good queen Bous." It struck me strange as we entered then the Chaplain's Room, find it made the dopository of an ancient gan, a buck skin doublet, a pair of houseman's boots and pistol hoisters which probably eaw ser-vice under the fiery Rupert against the "can-ing paritans" of Cromwell. But I suppose their Chaplains, in those days, were as war like as some of ours now, and wielded the Sir George Manners put it on in 1624.

Ascending the stairs, we found the suites of rooms usual in such places, with walls hang with queer old paintings and the rustling ta-pestry, worked by the fair fingers of the gen-tle dames for whose favor men in armor broke lances and shed each other's blood. In one of the rooms, is an ancient and rather dilapida ted piece of furniture, called a state apart and sanctified by the use of the different sovereigns who visited the baroinal dwelling posts are fourteen and a half feet high and the canopy, curtains, matrass and cover-ings, made so long ago as the reign of Henry VI. are of velves and satin, and are rich and elegant still. Opening out from the maid rooms, in the most ansaspected nooks and corners, are many of those secret chambers and passages, in which the men of olden time delighted, and which, in romances, so much of the startling events accomplished by their use. The gardens, still kept in perfect order, th the gardens, attil kept in period order, the old yew trees, the flowers, the terraces, the awith running river, the little Wye, winding around the foet of the hill, are the same now as in the olden time, but while Nature rejoices in immortal youth, men wax old and die, ward to pay much attention to the graces of and never in any city of the dead were we polite society, and are really behind all other remembered that the eyes of those who once delighted to look upon this scene and say "all this is ours." are now lustreless and dim, and

> If every member of the Administration had ten thousand souls, they would be insufficient throughout eternity to expints the hideous guilt incurred by them, in wickedly and wan most atrocious war on record, violating in its porcess every law human and divine, and whose success in its accursed policy can end only in the destruction of the people of the oth, the impoverishment and englavement of the North -N. F. News

"THE PROPLE DEMAND TO BE TAXED -In R debate in the Serate on the second instant, Senator Sumner of Massachusetts said : There was need of hundreds of millions additional taxes. The people demand to be taxed. This assertion opens up a new feature in the loyalty of our people. Already taxed to the verge of human endurance, taxed to the last moment of existence, their heirs taxed on the shroud that sowraps the lifeless body the coffin that encloses it, and on the per mit necessary to bury it, yet still the people demand to be taxed - N. Y. News.

THE ENEMY SURRENDERED! no but room either, and none of that solemes GREAT SLAUGHTER FALL AND WINTER GOODS.

ROTT & KROPP; AVE under formidable attack on High Prices and est them off softrely.

Notwithstanding the depressed condition of the country, they are receiving the largest stock of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS. GENT'S PURNISHING GOODS, of the Intent Styles, and De FARCY AND PLAIN PHIRTS, ODLLARS, DRAWERS, NECK-TIES, &c.

Ever before offered to the public. Their stock HEADY MADE CLOTHING The public ore invited to call and esamine, as they re invited to call and offer big indicements.

RO: T & EuOFF.

Ro. 302, Third fitreet. THOMAS O. LOWE, ATTORNEY AT LAW DAYTON, OHIO,
Will give prompt attention to all business enoffice in Gorman's Building, Third street. sulsy

WORTHY OF the NINEYEENTH CENTERY. DR. E. CONWAY'S NIMENTUM

Linimentum.

RHEUMATISM IN presenting the "Littermentum" to the public a done of the best and most cursive uncellines of the day, I do not wish to be understood as claiming the first the power of performing unheard of curse the life done that for all the purposes of a FASILLENINGER, it has no equal. The "Littermentous of the company of the curse of the

Never been Known to Fail. In any uses of Rheumalism, no maiser of how lon-standing, where the directions were user-fully follow ed, nor, tubed, in the case of any disease for alimi-it is recommended.

In ones of surrough, pales in the back, side, said chest, cramps in the stomach, sprain, sprain critical tie out up in 25 cent, 50 cent, and 31 buffles, with all directions for use, and manufactured only 59 for . CONWAY, Properties. No. 328 Third St., Layton Oldo For cala by membana and draughts werey here.

TRY IT ONCE, AND YOU WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT IT.

Wardware.

HARDWARE BEST GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

The undersigned are daily receiving goods pur

Mechanic's Tools, Builder's Hardware, Cabinet Hardware, Farming Tools,

TABLE AND POCKET CUTLERY. Mill & p Cut Circular Saws.

With all other Gonda in the Hardware line, which ware prepared to sell as lew as any house East or Wes-ANDERSON & DORBINS. JAMES BRACELIN, Coopers' Tools, Hardware, &c.

No 316 Third street.

BEING a practical mechanic, I know what kind of the mechanics mach, and selected a stock to suit their wants. Call and see me.

Glothing.

Later and Better News

FINKE & LEGLER

FALL AND WINTER GOOD Comprising all the new styles of SILK AND MARSEILLES VESTINGS,

FANCY AND PLAIN CASSIMERES. BLACK AND COLORED CLOTHS good assertment of Furnishing Goods. Seep the BALLOU FRENCH YOKE SHIRT

In the city. Give us a call and try us.

In the city. Give us a call and try us.

FINE & LEGLEB,

No. 397 Record st.

Professional Gards.

ELINU THOMPSON,

NOTARY PUBLIC.
Will attend to insures entrusted to him with dulgence, promptiess and exte. Office in German's Building, south of Oddin a Calmil's office, in the coom occupied by T. O. Lowe. mailed have; y

Dr. WILLIAM EGRY, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. OFFICE-Third street, opposite the Public Square feetedti

WILMER H. BELVILLE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

DAYTON, OHIO. OFFICE -No. 80 Main street, nearly opposite the Court House, over the Dry Goods Store of John S Bossbarry felldaw3m

ODLIN & CAHILL, Attorneys & Counselors at Law Gorman's Building, Third street, folidawif DAYTON, OHIO.

OFFICE-Clagg's Building, Third st. jakdawern

With anead promptly to all business

HOUR & MCMAHON, ATTORNEYS - AT- LAY OFFICE-NO. WES, THIRD STREET, DAYTO combareforce occupied by J. A. McMahon?" our sast of the M. E. Church near Main st. sui!

FOR SALE.

THE VALUABLE PROPERTY at the sourcest current deflection and Fifth streets; A DOUBLE BRICK HOUSE, arb side containing 10 rooms, all in good or with as inroughout; walls, caseen do., and make ou ALSO A HOUSE AND LOT on Fourth size west of Perry. For Particulars inquire of pr. Off En.

A. O. SULLIVAN, PAPER HANCER

ROOM IN POSTOFFICE BUILDING, KOLSE - Indeed Susanne Shepp's Ester.

On the 25th day of May, 166, the usedetted was appointed and qualified executor on scarce appointed and qualified executor (by, Ohio, of Susanne inepp, iste a, Moutgomery, they, Ohio, of Susanne inepp, iste a, Moutgomery, they, Ohio, of Susanne inepp, iste a, Moutgomery, they, Ohio, of Susanne inepp, iste a, Moutgomery, Text. Medical

COUGH & MORE STRICKLAND'S MELLIFLLOUS GOUGH BALSAM

CURES Coughs Colds, Sore Threat, Asthma, and Consumption. It is only necessary for any one truthled with these complaints to try one builds of Strickland's Melliflyour Cough Balsam to consider them that it is the best preparation evened. It out only cores the above affections of the Threet and Lunes, but it cures Might Sweats an applicance of it and easilist core of the first is an excellent corple for an intil of our Threet. It is pleasant to take, and an additions or infants. Price to Centa perbottle For sale body druggets generally.

VERYBODY is being cured of this distressing Dr. Strickland : Pile Remedy.

Brad what those say who have used it.
Mr. Charles W. Land, air, of Leuteville, and Mr. J.
P. Hasarde, Charlman, C. both served as ter using one put of Br. atriallands Pile Remeay. They asy they have tried everything but could obtain no raise, but one Fot of Stricklands Pile Remeay effected a perfect cure efter suffering for many years with the worst kind of Piles. They focummend every one who is suffering to try it.
Ask for

Dr. Strickland a Pile Remedy Sold by all druggists, ficts a pot. Mauntactured a. No. 8 East Fourth st, Cucinnari, O. m14

FLUX. Strickland a Inti-Cholera Mixture.

Strickland a 1sti-Cholera Mixture.

Is a composition of astringents, abordents, siling lants and carmind was, which systy physician as knowledges as the city preparation that will effect a permanent cure of fluorines and Dysaster. This anti-Cholera Mixture is now in use in some of the critical hospitals where it gives the greatest satisfaction. It has saved the hyesoft housands of our asolitors and citizens, and we self guarantee it to be the best rane day in the world to Distribution. My, will be most happy to satisfy any ones to the virtue of Stickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture in fact we have a great number of instinuousle rice patients who have used cure dust alta, being pronounced in urable by their physicians, seme-sfer taking only ne to title of Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. It can suffer with Diarrhea and Fysen tery try one bode.

Wair Restorer.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC. THE UNDESIGNED hereby return their thanks

GERMANI LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of New York for the great promptness they have shown in paing to us the amount of the insurance on the life off-size Either, deceased. Said Either insured his left of the benefit of his life said children, on the Eliza day of April, 1868. He suddeny took note, at duel to the Schuley of May, 1864, and on this daybe Company has paid us the amount of the insuran SLIOO. We think it right that the public should low these insits.

Dayton, day 24, 1864. A. HOORST. (Ind

PIOFESSOR DE MUNN'S ONLY GENUINE

HAR RESTORER!

DISIASES OF THE SCALP THE dile of the medical faculty in treating decayed or a scalp has, in a majority of cases, been tar flad thries, the most peculiar disease of the human frame. It is not to be underted at as it is quire great study seep it resurch and a bareril investigation of the cases which produce the disease. Unless the case which produce the disease. Unless the case of discovered, it is an uritar impossibility to crud de the disease and effect of permanent currently be got of the case have seen pronounced inpurable by got of the most enument physicians. I have devote

YEARS OF STUDY THE ONLY REMEDY

Soras known, that would permanently eradicate those lusthsome diseases of the scale I. c., Salt BHEUM, SCALD BEAD, Aj other curaneous diseases, and resions the heir to those who have become teld. To make good the assertion, I will forait FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

f fail to cure the worst cases of diseased scalps of the longest standing with the ON'. Y GENUINE HAIR RESTORER

Read the following: (Testimoni to Of Mrs. Sarah Gould.) THORAS J. S SRITE.

F. P. CUPPY.

SMITH & CUPPY.

TTORNEY S & AT - LAW.

DATTON, OHIO.

OFFICE—Clegg's Building, Third st.

JAMES H. BACGOTT.

office days a building, third at passawers with which my scale was a feeter was a each scale was the state of this city. The was informed by them that the case with which my scale was the state was a each scale was the state was the state of the case with which my scale was a feeter was a each scale was the state of the case of this city. The case of the case of the city of the case of the case of the city of the case of the case of the city of the case of the city of the case of the case of the city of the case of the case of the city of the case of the case of the city of the case of the case of the city of the case of the case of the case of the case of the city of the case of the case of the case of the city of the case of t

THE HAIR FROM PALLING OFF. The large and rapidly increasing sale of Restorany is the atronge to vidence of the manifold benefits it is conferring upon

THE HUMAN FAMILY. The confidence of the public has been obtained, and set all unde in attesting to its merit and wast superi-

OVER ALL PREPARATIONS Exercitarindoceal. I do not recommend my paragaza-tion becomes before you six test in twelty as many mouther, as it is a simple impossibility, and moutly in consistent with the lowest Nature. To those with are aleptical or impredictions I will make a both ride offer

I will forfett $1,000 (One Thousand Dollars) if I fall to cure the wors THE ONLY GEN INCHAIL RESTORER

This wanderful remedy is sold by druggists gener The sendenter ready a sole of diagram generally and the ROB IT FOR IT

N. H. - Curse guaranteed in every case where the derember sheeps are implicitly obeyed.

Sole Freez. Si per boile, or six totales for St.

FROF. H. A. DE MUNN.

Sole Freprieter, No. 39 things street, called a street.

A PETITION will be presented to Governo A Brough for the pardon of Clayborn Hegan, now prisoner is the Onio Pentectiers. ADW-2